Don't Miss Silicon Valley's Must-Attend Event

Saturday, October 22, 2022

5:30 PM

San Jose McEnery Convention Center

Back in person after a two year hiatus, our Gala will bring together over a dozen renowned chefs to create an eclectic array of savory and sweet creations for you and your friends. Coupled with notable wine, craft spirits, a live auction, and music designed to get everyone dancing, the event is a fun way to address the very serious issue of food insecurity and homelessness in our community. Mark your calendar!

If you know of a business or individual who may be interested in a sponsorship opportunity, please contact gala@hungerathome.org. Sponsorship opportunities are available now, with tables and individuals tickets on sale in late summer.

OUR BUSINESS AND NONPROFIT PARTNERS MAKE THE DREAM WORK

Did you know that Hunger at Home has a network of partners across Silicon Valley — from businesses, sports venues and corporations to nonprofits working on the front lines? These strong partnerships make it possible for us to rescue excess food and quickly get it to people in need. Through our 29 nonprofit partners, we are able to magnify the scale of our food distribution efforts. This network makes it possible for us to feed more people, from more diverse backgrounds than we ever could alone. To date, we have distributed 12 million meals together. Read the testimonials below to learn how our work and your support is improving lives.

CONNECTS PROGRAM OFFERS VALUABLE CAREER TRAINING

Now Accepting Applications For Our Next Cohort

Our first Connects program cohort is in full swing. Connects is a 10-week culinary and hospitality training program for unemployed or underemployed individuals. Upon completing the program, we provide students with job placement assistance. Our goal is to build self-sufficiency and break the cycle of poverty.

We are accepting applications for our next cohort. Apply or pass is on to someone who may be interested!

NEED CATERING?

Full Circle Catering is a social enterprise of Hunger at Home. We provide excellent food and service for big and small events. But when you choose us, you are also giving back to those in need. Proceeds from our catering business go directly back into feeding food insecure families and individuals in our community. It's a win-win!
